THE NEXT GOVERNOR. We see that already some of our contempo raries are speculating upon the subject of our next Gubernatorial Campaign. Some weeks and must sound his bugle-let's hear it." ago, the Mecklenburg Jeffersonian spoke of Charles Fisher as one well worthy to bear aloft the democratic banner as the candidate of our party for Governor. Mr. Fisher made s gallant fight during the recent Congressional contest, and we think had fair play been done have more time to hold meetings, for the purhim he would this day be the representative of pose of appointing delegates. We think that the Salisbury District. He is a veteran in February will be soon enough. This we give the cause. His talents are known and acknowl- as our opinion before we hear the Standard's edged by the Democratic party, and should his name be fairly placed before the people of the country? the State, we for one, would give him our hearty and cordial support. But before we give our support to any man, we must feel convinced that he will be able to carry with him the full, cordial and cheerful approbation of the whole Democratic party, in all portions and sections of the State. Whether Charles Fisher could do this or not, we do not take upon ourselves to say. There is however, one way of satisfactorily ascertaining this. Of this way, we shall take occasion to speak before we close these remarks. North Carolina is now a Democratic State. We say it proudly and emphatically. North Carolina stands free and disenthralled from the shackles of federalism. The late Congressional Election demonstrates this clorious fact beyond a shadow of doubt-at least to our mind. The glorious victory which we achieved on the 7th of August last is one which should inspire every Democrat with enthusiastic confidence. To improve that victory however, will require the friends of Democratic principles to act with the utmost prudence and caution. In North Carolina, from circumstances, the Democratic party have more to contend with, than perhaps, in any State, in the Union, South of the Potomac. Our antagonists have at least two presses for every one which we have .-This of itself, is a great disadvantage under which the advancement of our cause labours. Then again, for years past, a great majority of the members of the bar have belonged to the Federal party; & the fact cannot be concealed that the legal profession exercises a vast influence over the public sentiment of any State. The Corporations-the Banks-the Rail Roads and the Cotton Manufactures of the State, are in the hands of the Federal party, and the vast against us. ' Against these combined influen-ites in entering upon the coming Campaign.

From the present position of the State, we can elect a Democratic Governor if we try .-We can too, and will have a Democratic Legislature. To secure both these desirable ends our strongest man must be placed before the people as our candidate for Governor. How can this be done? Some think that the best plan would be, for the respective counties to hold meetings, and nominate directly whatever individual might be the choice of such meetings, thereby dispensing with a State Convention. Others, and we think those who take a correct view of the matter, think that meetings should be called forthwith in the respective of that city had not discovered the feasibility of counties, which meetings would appoint delegates to a State Convention to be held at Raleigh. These meetings might recommend any individual they chose, subject to the decision of the General Convention. This in our humhle judgment, is the only proper and legitimate way in which a candidate can be present | Baltimore, next to New Orleans, is generally the ed to the people. Its true; if all the counties cheapest provision market in the country; the arwere to nominate the same individual, then a Convention might be dispensed with. But this cannot be expected. In the Baltimore Sun of the 3d inst., we see a lengthy account of a meeting which was held in that city on the 2d, for the purpose of taking into consideration the practicability and run regularly between that city and this place. The Charleston Mercury, supposed by mos to be the legitimate organ of Mr. Calhoun and his friends in South Carolina has been pursuing, what seems to us, not only a very unwise. but a very illiberal course towards Mr. Polk held in all the counties during the short period and the Washington Union, which from its which would intervene between this time and position, is generally believed to speak the that month. Mr. Polk' whole life shews that he is opposed to the pro tective policy, and in his celebrated Kane letter, he refers to his past course as affording a Key to the principles which will guide him whilst occupying the executive chair. That Mr. Polk, with the advice and concurrence of his Cabinet, too, will recommend to the next Session of Congress a reduction of the Tarif to a revenue Standard, we believe as confidently as we do that the sun will rise on the morrow. That too, whatever influence he can exercise, will be cordially applied to ensure this desirable end we feel the utmost assurance. FIRE.

On Tuesday morning last, about 2 o'clock, the alarm of fire was given. It originated in an old house in the rear of Dr. John A. Davis' bar room, on Market Street. The flames were arrested before any damage was done. We are informed that pieces of lightwood were discovered in the loft of this old building, evidently placed there for the purpose of setting the building on fire. Several attempts have been made recently, to fire the square in which

Another .- On the next (Wednesday) morn ing, at the same hour, our citizens were again aroused from their beds by the fire bell. On looking out of our window, we found the street illumined by the ruddy glare of the flames. A kitchen belonging to, and in the rear of Mr. Grant's dwelling house, situated on Boundary Street, caught fire by some means, and was completely destroyed. Fortunately the wind was blowing off the dwelling house; otherwise, it, too, must have fallen a prey to the devouring element.

We would here remark that we think the first duty of the members of fire companies, is larm of fire is given, to their Engine house and not, as is too often the case, rush to the fire and leave the engine and hose carriage to find their way to the scene of action, as they best may, on their own "hook." This re mark is suggested by seeing an Engine standing stock still, on Market Street, with some half a dozen individuals around it, whose force was entirely too weak to drag it through the sand. This, we think, is a wrong state of things, and ought to be looked into by the Maryland Election.

The result in Maryland is a glorious or for Democracy. In the last Congress the whigs had the whole delegation, six members pow we have four out of the six. The result in this State demonstrates clearly that the administration has the confidence of the people. It will be seen by the summary which weexaract from the Richmond Enquirer, that the Legislature is whig by considerable majority. This, so far as national politics is concerned, is not of much importance, as there is no Senator to be elected this year. The 4 Democrats elected are thorough going anti-Tariff men. The subjoined synopsis of the result we find in the Richmond Enquirer of the 7th.

Business men want some place where they can meet in the evenings; where they can see one another, and where a gentleman who has business culate with tolerable certainty on finding him. This we have not in Wilmington at present; unless indeed the bar rooms may be considered in this light. A reading room properly got up would supply this dissideratum. There our citizens could resort to spend an agree ble hour, either in conning over the news, of in social or business converse with their neighhours. In this way, too, for a very trifling expense to each individual, those who wish could know what was going on all over the world. We have had occasion several times, recently, to place the peculiar brightness of the Observer's wit, in such a light that it will not be lost to the world. This week, we must again do him this service, and by way of doing so, we would like to know if the sapient editor of the Observer, could tell us the difference between chalk and cheese. We're not joking. We should like to be informed on this point. For if he answers in the affirmative, we would then like to know of him, if there is any difference between a foreigner and a citizen of the Unifed States. If he can perceive the difference netween the former two articles, then there is ome hope that he will be able to make the latter discrimination. We say that we are a citizen of the United States. This is susceptible of proof in a court of law. Still the Observer continues to call us a foreigner.

The Favetteville Observer of last Wednes

The Observer says that our pretending to liscover quibbles in his paper "was but a preude to its [meaning the Journal] own quiboling and pettifoggery." Well done, "decency!" But really, this seems somewhat childish and only betrays the Editor's soreness. It is really too funny to argue a point with a person who both denies and admits your positions. The Observer says that those citizens of the United States, who went to Texas, and who assisted in achieving the independence of that republic from Mexican tyrany, did so as citizens of the United States, whilst in the very same article he admits that those of them that might have been captured by Mexico, had she been successful, would have been properly treated by her as Texans, and that the United States would have had no "right" to interfere in the matter. Surely this is admitting all that we contended for. We asserted that those quondam citizens of the United States who participated in the Texan revolution did so as citizens of Texas. The Government grate to Texas and take the chances of war, there, were to take part in the struggle, would interfered in the affairs of a neighboring State?

We have yet to see one jota of proof of the charge which the Observer so "deliberately" by an American paper, published in our midst, tried to dodge and quibble himself out of the dilemma in which this aspersion of his country sole and exclusive benefits that there are hundred to him all the records, public money, docuand patriotism if they can.

It may be said, without exaggeration, that the next session of Congress is destined to be one of the most important which has taken place since the foundation of the government. It is the long session. It is the session which will develope the general plan of the present administration. Its measures will stamp the character of our institutions for years to come. Some of the most important questions which are connected with our foreign relations, or our domestic concerns, will be presented for their consideration. The final measure of ratifying the constitution of Texas, which is to consummate her admission into our Union, and the admission of her members into our public councils-every measure which affects the Oregon question—our relations with Mexico—as well as the final decition on the revived Zoll-Verein trea-ty,—these, and other measures which are more less connected with our foreign relations, will come under the review of the approaching Congress .-20 bags prime Rio Coffee, 10,000 Segars, Most of the eminently important questions which relate to our internal concerns—the revision of the tariff—the adoption of the best mode for preserving the public moneys-a variety of commercial measures-perhaps the best system for regulating the important interests of Pexas—the Indian ques-

T may traly de said; that no one has ever been so successful in compounding a medicine, which has done so much to relieve the human family, to rob disease of its terrors, and restore the Invalid to Health and comfort, as the Invalid and Proprietor of that most deservedly popular family medicine, Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild medicine, Dr. Swayne's Compound Sympol Wild Cherry, and none has been so generally patronised by the Profession and others, both in this country and in Europe, nor has there ever been so great an effort in the short space of six or seven years, to deceive the credulous and unthinking, by putting up Nostrums of various kinds, by various individuals, affixing the name of Wild Cherry, and as much of the name of the original preparation as will screen them from the lash of the law, and one of the impostors who puts out the common parts. of the impostors who puts out the common paregoric of the shops and calls it the Balsam of Wild Cherry, has had the impudence to caution the pubic against the original preparation, Dr. Swayne's

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which is doing so much good in the world. Beware of such impostors And purchase none but the original and only genuine article as prepared by Dr. Swayne, which is pages! the only one compounded by a regular Physician, and arose from many years' close attention to the practice of the profession, and which led to this great discovery. Thousands and tens of thousands of the best testimonials of the unparalleled success of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for the cure of consumerion, coughs. colds, spitting blood, liver complaint, tickling or rising in the throat, nervous debility, weakness of voice, palpitation or disease of the heart, pain in the side or breast, broken constitution from various causes, the abuse of calomel &c., bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, &c., were declared to the world years before any other preparation of Wild Cherry came out. The most ekeptical may satisfy themselves as to the trath of the above, by a little enquiry in Philadelphia. The genuine article is prepared only by Dr. Swayne, whose office has been removed to N. W. corner of 8th and Race streets, Philad's.

The Balsam and other spurious articles of Wild Cherry has been sold out, and the proprietors are obliged to resort to falsehood and stratagem to make their own out of it. The genuine article is put up in plain style in square bottles covered with a blue wrapper, with a yellow label with the proprietor's signature attached. Mezzolint Engraving of WASHINGTON FROM THE ORIGINAL PICTURE BY COL. J. TRUM-BULL, (his aid de camp,)

Now in the possession of Yale College, N. Hapen. More in the passession of Tale Courge, Iv. France.

HIS picture, representing Gen. Washington on the battle field at Trenton, was partied in the pear 1793, for the city of Charleston, but the introduction of that place preferring to have a view of their own city in the back ground, Col. Trumbull painted another according to their request, (which is now in the City Hall.) The ori ginal picture was purchased by the Cincinnati Society of Connecticut, who afterwards presented it to Yale College.

It is considered by judges, a Gem of American Art, and is one of the best likenesses of the incomparable patriot in existence, and the only picture representing him in the prime of life.
